About Us

WikiPeaceWomen is one of PeaceWomen Across the Globe’s projects. PeaceWomen Across the Globe (PWAG), is based in Berne, Switzerland. Its main goals over the last decade have been to support deeper and sustainable connectivity of PeaceWomen around the world, to increase the visibility of their work, to expand their bodies of knowledge and skills and to disseminate their expertise outside their own spheres of influence. Through creating the “WikiPeaceWomen” website, we are documenting the PeaceWomen’s stories and expanding the network for connecting PeaceWomen across different backgrounds and languages. The WikiPeaceWomen team is based in Hong Kong.
